CALL-OUT FOR MANAGERS AND SCOUTS

Indigenous Sport and Wellness Ontario (ISWO) is now accepting applications for volunteer General Managers and Scouts. These positions will lead and assist the Male and Female Divisions of Team Ontario to compete at the 2023 National Aboriginal Hockey Championships (NAHC). ISWO will take two teams to represent Team Ontario at this Hockey Canada sanctioned event which will be held in Winnipeg, Manitoba from May 7th - 13th, 2023.

OVERVIEW

The NAHC serves as a premier event that annually showcases elite minor level Indigenous hockey players from across Canada. The NAHC are designed as an elite, all-star format where the best hockey players are selected to compete on behalf of their respective province/territory. This event is inclusive, meaning anyone of Indigenous ancestry, including First Nations – Status and non-Status, Inuit, and Métis, are eligible to compete.

On May 16, 2022, the Aboriginal Sport Circle (ASC) announced that Winnipeg, Manitoba will be the host for the 2023 NAHC. The event will take place from May 7th - 13th, 2023 at the Seven Oaks Arena with over 500 participants expected to be in attendance.
